Taking a responsible approach to society is a natural part of our day-to-day business. We see this as a responsibility we share with our stakeholders, including our contractors. This Contractor Code of Conduct¹ describes what we expect of you as one of our contractors.

We expect at a minimum:

- that you meet the conditions set out in this Contractor Code of Conduct
- that you follow our guidelines for proper conduct (see www.hededanmark.dk)

You can expect us to do the same.

If there is any discrepancy between legislation and other regulation, the content of this Contractor Code of Conduct or the terms set out in our contract with you, you must comply with the stricter standard.

We also expect you to follow our guidelines for proper conduct when you provide services to us. This means:

¹ HedeDanmark's Contractor Code of Conduct is based on relevant international guidelines, including the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, the UN Global Compact principles, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, ILO conventions on child labour (C138, C182), forced labour (C029, C105), equal remuneration and discrimination (C100, C111) and freedom of association (C087, C098).

WHO DOES THE CONTRACTOR CODE OF CONDUCT APPLY TO?

Who does the Contractor Code of Conduct apply to?

HedeDenmark's Contractor Code of Conduct applies to all suppliers providing services to HedeDenmark and any of our Danish subsidiaries.

We define services as work performed by you on behalf of HedeDenmark consisting of manual and/or mechanical work. Suppliers providing such services are referred to as 'contractors' in this Contractor Code of Conduct.

Deliveries of finished goods are not covered by the concept of 'services' and are not covered by this Contractor Code of Conduct.

Contractors performing work for HedeDenmark may only use sub-contractors subject to prior agreement with HedeDenmark. If, as a contractor to HedeDenmark, you use sub-contractors, we expect you to ensure they are familiar with the content of our Contractor Code of Conduct and that they comply with the code at all times. As a contractor to HedeDenmark, you may be requested to document that your contractors meet the expectations set out in this Contractor Code of Conduct.
